

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday, August 23, 2002

Clarion Ledger, Jackson

Hearing put off on prison issue

MDOT director staying put

Put elders' care 1st, DHS urges

Ford: Civil justice reform joint committee wasn't mandated

Ebbers must get top dollar for assets

Agnew named executive editor

Editorials

Tort reform: Legislature needs a consensus

Teachers: Shortage, pay ensures 'making do'

Hinds schools: Another bond vote a weighty issue

Bush is wrong to push tort reform

Ads plentiful for class-action suits

Lawsuits, jury awards major source of tort reform woes

The Sun Herald, Biloxi

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal, Tupelo

The Commercial Appeal, Memphis

Hattiesburg American, Hattiesburg

State legislature divided on tort reform

Laurel Leader-Call, Laurel

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register, Clarksdale

The Bolivar Commercial, Cleveland

Doctor discusses forum with Bush

Groups receive \$255,000 grant to help prevent Delta job loss

Enterprise Journal, McComb

Musgrove, Guard tout 'About Face'

Editorials for Thursday, Aug. 22, 2002

Delta Democrat Times, Greenville

The Greenwood Commonwealth, Greenwood

Manufacturing not dying, leaders say

Irvin to state officials: No layoffs until next year

Subject area test scores improve

A friendly suggestion on tort reform

The Natchez Democrat, Natchez

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Governor Musgrove to speak at Lucedale fish fry

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times